

Clwyd New Appointments:

General Manager: Richard Thomas

Joined the business from Terex Pegson (based in Leicestershire) where he was Operations Director. This business manufactured stone crushers, which were sold worldwide for use in various applications, from quarrying to recycling. In the early years Richard served an Engineering Apprenticeship and has worked for various businesses including Smiths industries and Perkins Engines, and brings to CCL organisation, process improvements experience and managerial skills.